

THE WEST VIRGINIA SOUTHERN BAPTIST

December, 2011 VOL. 41, NO. 9

A Cooperative Program ministry gladly sharing the truth and gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and the stories of our Lord's work in and through the churches of West Virginia Southern Baptists.

A SHORT BIOGRAPHY OF LOTTIE MOON

from the International Mission Board web site

Lottie Moon was born Charlotte Diggs Moon, Dec. 12, 1840, in Albemarle County, Va.

Lottie rebelled against Christianity until she was in college. In December 1858, she dedicated her life to Christ and was baptized at First Baptist Church of Charlottesville, Virginia.

Lottie attended Albemarle Female Institute, female counterpart to the University of Virginia. In 1861, she was one of the first women in the South to receive a master's degree.

Lottie stayed close to home during the Civil War but eventually taught school in Kentucky, Georgia and Virginia.

Edmonia Moon, Lottie's sister, was appointed to Tengchow, China, in 1872. The following year, Lottie was appointed and joined her sister there.

Lottie served 39 years as a missionary, mostly in China's Shantung province. She taught in a girls' school and often made trips into China's interior to share the good news with women and girls.

Lottie frequently wrote letters to the United States, detailing Chinese culture, missionary life and the great physical and spiritual needs of the Chinese people. Additionally, she challenged Southern Baptists to go to China or give so that others could go. By 1888, Southern Baptist women had organized and helped collect $3,315 to send workers needed in China.

Lottie died aboard a ship in the Japanese harbor of Köbe on Dec. 24, 1912. She was 72 years old.

In 1918, Woman's Missionary Union named the annual Christmas offering for international missions after the woman who had urged them to start it.

How much does it cost to support a missionary?

- $46,700 a year (average)
- $3,890 a month
- $900 a week
- $128 a day
- $5.30 an hour
- $.09 a minute

Reported April 2011. Support includes housing, salary, children's education, medical expenses, retirement and more.

WHAT IS THE LOTTIE MOON CHRISTMAS OFFERING?

Southern Baptist churches collect the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for the sole purpose of supporting international missions. Every penny of the offering goes to the International Mission Board's overseas budget, thus supporting our missionaries and their work.

What is the goal for this year's offering?
$175 million.

What is the 2011 theme? "His heart, His hands, His voice - I am Southern Baptist missions."

HISHEART HISHANDS HISVOICE

Executive Director Terry Harper

Dear Friends;

Cheryl and I have just returned from the annual meeting of the West Virginia Convention of Southern Baptists, which met in Martinsburg, WV at Westview Baptist Church on November 4-5, 2011. In the years ahead, this meeting will likely be written into the history of our convention. The meeting was historic in a number of ways, primarily because the report of the Strategy Planning Group was presented and adopted by the body.

There were 195 registered messengers to this convention and 18 visitors. That is in contrast to last years meeting when 134 messengers registered with 51 visitors. Although there was some strong opposition to the adoption of the SPG Report, I will look forward to going forward with all those who wish to do so. I believe that most Southern Baptists in West Virginia desire to see more people come to Christ and be baptized, so the difference was primarily in how to accomplish that. Now that the body has spoken, I hope that we can all join hands and march forward together. I am willing to work with all who desire to work with our state convention and with NAMB. There are a lot of lost people in West Virginia and they need our witness.

From the Executive Director:

Many times when Cheryl and I are traveling in various cities, I have gotten turned around and actually completely lost. When I am lost, I usually don't get picky about who gives me directions. The same is true of a person who is spiritually lost. They really don't care who tells them how to find life. They just want and need new life. Well, we have the hope and the purpose to share but the question is (as the song goes), do we really care? Well, I care and I believe that you do too. Let us be determined to make a huge difference in the lost population of West Virginia. Before I take to the rocking chair, I want to make an impact on lostness in West Virginia, that has not as of yet been made. I must openly confess that to date, I have not had the impact on the number of lost people in West Virginia that I really want to make.

I believe with this new direction, we will be able to do just that.

I know that our former President, Seth Polk feels this way. Further, in talking recently with our new President, Greg Vardell, he said to me that he is "willing to do whatever it takes to see West Virginians saved". That is a powerful statement! I am willing as well. That is my heart's desire. Would you join me and our current leadership and say, "Whatever it takes, O Lord". Let's together see West Virginia come to Christ.

God bless you and your family and I hope and pray that you have a joyous Thanksgiving and Christmas season.

In Christ,
Terry L. Harper
Lead Missionary
(Executive Director-Treasurer)

IMB missionary to Uruguay and native West Virginian, shared about her call to ministry and some of the events of her family's first four years on the field. Tasha is married to Henry, and they have three children. She is from Liberty.

Funding International Missions

- Your church decides how much of the money members give will be sent to your state convention for use through the Cooperative Program.
- State convention messengers vote on what percentage of these funds stay in the state and what percentage is forwarded to the SBC Cooperative Program.
- Slightly more than half of these Cooperative Program funds go to IMB and the remainder to other SBC entities.
- Every penny your church gives to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering directly funds your IMB missionaries as they work to bring unreached peoples to Christ.
- More than half of the IMB's total budget comes from Lottie Moon gifts.

GOD WANTS YOU TO KNOW

HE LOVES YOU. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. [John 3:16]

MAN IS SINFUL AND SEPARATED FROM GOD. As it is written, there is none righteous, no not one. [Romans 3:10]

For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. [Romans 3:23]

JESUS IS GOD'S ONLY PROVISION

FOR SIN. But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. [Isaiah 53:5]

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. [Romans 6:23]

WE MUST RECEIVE JESUS AS LORD

AND SAVIOR. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. [Romans 10:13]

THE DECISION IS NOW YOURS. And you shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart. [Jeremiah 29:13]

Admit to God that you have sinned and have been wrong to Him. Believe that Jesus is God's Son, and that He died on the cross for you. Confess Jesus as your Savior and Lord, and commit your life to Him.

MATT and CYNDI MAXSON are also from West Virginia. You support them and their family in the work. They were able to be with us at camp this past July.

They did a great job telling the campers about their work.

Seen it? It is not too late! Don't miss this opportunity.

Southwestern Offers 2012 Revival Preachers

By Benjamin Hawkins

FORT WORTH, Texas (SWBTS) – Churches can join Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in promoting spiritual awakening across the United States by hosting preachers during “Revive this Nation,” March 11-14, 2012.

Southwestern aims to send revival preachers to 200 churches throughout the nation, with at least one preacher in all 50 states.

“We want to partner churches who will join us in prayer for God to revive our nation and who will invite people to come hear the Gospel preached.” Thomas White, vice president for student services and communications, said. “Passionate men who have thoroughly prepared stand ready to preach the Word, calling believers to greater commitment and the lost to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.”

During “Revive this Nation 2011,” the seminary sent out 124 preachers, who led 140 people to accept Christ as Savior, and engaged more than 1,250 people in personal evangelism.

Southwestern will pay for the roundtrip transportation of preachers to and from the revival locations. Churches provide housing, meals and local transportation.

To sign your church up, visit www.swbts.edu/rtn.

White Sulphur Springs Baptist Church welcomed Rev. Randy Gilliam as their new pastor on August 21, 2011. Randy and his wife, Della, will relocate to White Sulphur Springs from Johnson City, TN.

After the morning worship service, Rev. Randy Gilliam baptized a girl. She became the newest member of our church which makes nine this year.

That afternoon, a church picnic was held at Hart’s Run and everyone enjoyed good food, fellowship and special singing by Rev. Lewis Brooks and The Woodrum’s, and several members of our church. We give God praise for all he does for us.

STATE CONVENTION NEWS

The Strategy Planning Group presented their report on Friday afternoon. The report had been mailed to the churches and also put on the web site for people to examine. A motion from the floor in order to add 30 minutes of discussion prior to the vote being taken Friday night, passed.

A motion to vote on the six recommendations in the report separately, failed (87 to 86). Most of the votes taken were made by ballot because they were too close to call by show of ballots.

Discussion concerning the Report was decent and in order, yet passionate and sometimes emotional. The final vote in favor of the Report was 106 to 71.

Greg Varndell, pastor, Fairlawn, Parkersburg, was elected President of the Convention, 88 to 81, over David Dockery, pastor, FBC Princeton. Matt Shambelin, pastor, North Charleston, was elected First Vice-President over Dennis Cherry, association missionary, Allegheny Association, 102 to 73. Second Vice-President was voted to Don Knotts, pastor, Wayside, Buckhannon, 98 to 56, over Jack Miller, pastor, West Ripley.

Six of seven resolutions were passed by the Convention. The full text of the resolutions may be seen on the www.wvcsb.org web site. Two resolutions thanked the Convention staff and the people of Westview Baptist Church for hosting the meeting.

Another resolution recognized the invaluable work missionaries supported by NAMB had done in West Virginia and called upon NAMB to keep funding them.

A fourth resolution affirmed the need to start new churches and to stay focused on evangelism according to the Across West Virginia strategy. Churches need to use available resources to stay healthy in order to stay focused on God's plan.

Another resolution gave praise for the superb work of the military and offered condolences to the many families who have experienced grief as a result of their loved one's service.

The sixth resolution to pass encouraged people to pray for the peace of Israel, for our government to work for the peace of Israel, and for the nations of Israel and Palestine to work for peace in the Middle East.-----The Editor

WHAT IS THE LOTTIE MOON CHRISTMAS OFFERING?

Southern Baptist churches collect the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for the sole purpose of supporting international missions. Every penny of the offering goes to the International Mission Board's overseas budget, thus supporting our missionaries and their work.

What planning materials are available to help church leaders prepare for the offering?

- The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering planning guide for missions leaders offers presentations helps, success stories, resources and Web links to more resources to help you lead a successful missions emphasis, including products available to order.
- The pastor's planning guide offers sermon helps, success stories, resources and Web links to other helpful resources.
- Leader guides for students and children are available offering resources and stories for these specific audiences.

All four guides include a DVD-ROM with preview and presentation format video features on the DVD side and downloadable video, promotional art, photos and more on the ROM side. The guides are conveniently bundled together in a media kit that will be sent to churches for distribution to the appropriate leaders. Churches will receive the guides by mid-September.

Does the IMB have offering resources for youth and children?

Yes. Our Lottie Moon Christmas Offering 2011 Media Kit includes leader's guides for students and children. The guides include DVD-ROM with age-appropriate video stories and downloads. More resources can be found on thetask.org/lot-tie and imb.org/childrensresources.

What materials can I order for my congregation?

FREE resources for your church to promote the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering include

- The 2011 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering Media Kit described above
- Extra pastor, missions leader, student leader and children's leader guides with DVD-ROM
- Commission Stories tabloid, winter edition
- Living Letter fliers, LMCO edition

Week of Prayer for International Missions

The Week of Prayer, Dec. 4-11, encourages churches to pray daily for the international missions work and missionaries the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering supports.

Who is featured during the Week of Prayer?

This year Southern Baptists will celebrate how God is working in cities around the world. Each Week of Prayer feature illustrates how missionaries are His heart, His hands, His voice.

How do churches obtain Week of Prayer resources?

Your Woman's Missionary Union state office distributes free Week of Prayer guides and posters. Churches should receive their quantities by Nov. 1.

How can I get the study?

Kits, pupil materials and teacher's guides are available from WMU or from LifeWay.

West Virginia Prayer Focus

Your state convention staff meets each working day for a brief time of prayer. We pray for missionaries, campuses, associations, churches, and church plants by name each day. We invite our readers to pray as well.

New Work: Prayer. While prayer is not new, start a new prayer work. Make a map of your community and systematically begin praying up and down the different areas as to where God may want to start a new work, and let it begin with you.

Church Planting: As church planting becomes more and more a targeted focus across North America, we need all be in prayer as to how our churches can be involved. There are many great resources and avenues of discovery, www.namb.net.

Scripture Promise: "Look to the nations and be utterly amazed. For I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe, even if you were told." Habakkuk 1:5

Ministry Focus: The Chinese Mission in Huntington, WV is part of Highlawn Baptist Church. For many years they have been praying for a pastor to lead the internationals that are a part of the ministry. God has provided! Continue to pray for the Chinese Mission to reach internationals coming to Huntington for work, education and life. Impacting the world, one person at a time.

Weekend Focus: The Holidays are a natural opportunity to engage others with the wonderful news of our Lord and Savior. Spend some time sharing the Good News. Some ideas might be: host a holiday open house, bake cookies for neighbors, take cards to the service people in your area...all in the name and love of Jesus.

Resource: LifeWay Christian Resources has a host of online resources, articles and materials to uplift, encourage and equip your church. www.Lifeway.com.

ANSWERED PRAYER!

Pastor Paul Noh was ordained into the ministry at Highlawn Baptist Church on Sunday, October 16, during the morning worship service. Paul is now the Pastor of the Chinese Christian Fellowship in Huntington, WV. He writes:

"My Korean name is Sung Cheun Noh. The Chinese call me Lu mushi (Pastor Lu). In English, I go by Paul. I have been married to my wife, Yu Jin, for ten years. We have two boys that are nine and seven years old, Howard and Jason.

I have a Th.M. and M.A. from Korean Methodist Theological Seminary in Seoul, South Korea and Chinese Evangelical Seminary in Taipei, Taiwan. Currently, I am studying as a Ph.D. student in Intercultural Studies at Asbury Seminary outside of Lexington, KY.

God has called me as his servant for the Chinese people. I love serving the Chinese in the Huntington and Charleston areas. In the future, I hope to serve Chinese ministers and seminarians with theological education."

News from West Virginia Churches

ALLEGHENY ASSOCIATION

After several months of work, the renovation of the worship area, foyer, and restroom at First Baptist Church in Craigsville has been completed. The Renovation Committee and many other volunteers worked diligently to create a worship/teaching area that is both functional and honoring to God. David Sommerville is the pastor.

GREATER HUNTINGTON ASSOC.

Abundant Hope Baptist participated in the Barboursville Fall Parade and Festival. From their booth at the Festival they distributed Bibles and church information and did face painting. Paul Harris pastors the church.

First Baptist of Ceredo, Rodney Hale pastor, recently experienced Five Days Ablazed! Each service, Sunday through Thursday, featured a different preacher: John Freeman, Cledith Campbell, C.J. Adkins, Paul Harris, Pat Elliott, and Randall Robertson, all pastors from the Greater Huntington Association, along with the choirs from most of their churches. A dessert fellowship was held after each evening service.

The Chinese Fellowship ordained their pastor Paul Noh at a joint worship service of the English speaking and Chinese congregations. Dr. Jeremy Sin, living in Atlanta and serving with NAMB, brought the charge to the churches.

Eastwood Baptist held a dedication service for their newly remodeled sanctuary. A new ministry has begun for 10-14 year olds, called Double Digits. Plans are being made for an over-50 ministry as well. Brady Lipscomb is the pastor.

Hamlin Baptist's student ministry UNDERGROUND recently celebrated its one year "birthday". During that year twenty-four teens have been saved and sixteen teens baptized. There have been 140 different students visit UG at least once and the average weekly attendance has been thirty-five. James Caldwell pastors the church.

IMMANUEL ASSOCIATION

The youth group at Jackson Avenue Baptist held their Muddy Bottom Race at the home of Pastor Joe and Susie Nott. The youth and young at heart had a wonderful time going over, under, around, and through the obstacle course, getting very muddy in the process. During a three-day retreat this summer the youth worked on several projects at the Association's Son Valley Camp. The projects included making and installing a sign for the camp, planting flowers, installing drain pipes, and constructing a devotional fire ring complete with six benches.

In 1994, a building was constructed by several mission teams for the Southside Baptist Church, under former pastor Sturgil Vincent. It was used for Sunday School space, a kitchen, bathroom and sanctuary. As they grew, a small addition was added under the leadership of Pastor Paul Drake. Following the purchase of additional property and completion of a new fellowship hall and kitchen, they have completed the expansion of their sanctuary. --The Communicator, Immanuel Baptist Association

The youth and Children-In-Action groups from Faith Baptist in Mason conducted prayer activities on the grounds of local schools on September 28. The youth, under the leadership of Scott and Shari Kebler prayed on the Wahama High School campus, as did the C.I.A., under the leadership of Terry Branch, at the elementary school in New Haven. Gary Fields and the Men's Fellowship conducted a church bike ride on October 2 on the Athens, Ohio, bike path. Ron Branch pastors the church.

MONONGAHELA ASSOCIATION

Church of the Good Shepherd served homemade cookies and hot chocolate to parade goers during the Apple Butter Festival. Sonny Palmer is pastor.

The Bridge, a new church plant in Jane Lew, had forty-five people at its first public service in September, including ten people from the community.

MOUNTAIN STATE ASSOC.

Edgemont Baptist Church in Bluefield has welcomed Interim Pastor Hugh Cole and his wife Mary Lou. The church held a carry-in meal to formally welcome the Coles.

PIONEER ASSOCIATION

The folks at Good Shepherd Baptist in Scott Depot, where Kenny Stidham is pastor, are enjoying their recently completed Family Life Center. The building, which houses classroom space, a meeting room, kitchen and gym, was dedicated in September. The day of celebration included the annual church picnic. A Pastor Appreciation Dinner was held in the space in October. A Family Fun Fest on October 31 closed out the month's activities. Kids dressed as their favorite Bible hero or super hero. Games, inflatables, food, and of course lots and lots of candy contributed to a great evening of fun for all ages.

TRI-COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Emmanuel Baptist in Great Cacapon, Larry Tomlinson pastor, has completed the installation of a new church steeple and cross, thanks to the generosity of some of God's servants. A group from the church handed out tracts at the Martinsburg Airshow and at the Berkeley Springs Apple Butter Festival. Emmanuel's teens had a very good conversation with a group of teens that wanted to know about Christianity. Some of these teens considered themselves atheists and Wiccan, but listened as the Emmanuel group challenged them with their beliefs.

Second Southern Baptist Church in Martinsburg, in conjunction with Sisters United, sponsored a spaghetti dinner to raise funds for local cancer patients. The church held an Extreme Couponing Workshop in October. Brian Persinger is the pastor.

2011 Bridge Day at the New River Gorge

This year was a real success with over 500 individuals coming through the Baby Comfort and Sit a Spell area. Arlene and I were the only ones there this year but we were able to interact with those who dropped by. We had great opportunities to share the love of God with those who came to Bridge Day.

We are in need of help as this ministry grows. This year we not only set up the Baby Comfort station where mothers could feed and change their baby's diapers, we also had a Sit a Spell area with 25 chairs set up. It is the only area where people can sit down in chairs.

In addition, five hand sanitizer stands were set up near the tents. Four gallons were used by the attendees! Information was posted about the WVCSB convention and the Mountaineer Mission.

Mark Joseph, Pastor, Canaan Valley Baptist Church

First Baptist Church, Brandywine, had 72 children and adults registered for Vacation Bible School. Four children made decisions to follow Jesus. On Monday evening we were privileged to have Matt and Cyndi Maxson, native West Virginians, to share about their life and work in the United Kingdom.

The offering taken during the VBS week will be used to purchase lunches for the local elementary children who cannot afford lunches.

LIVE WITH URGENCY!

The Jason Lovins Band

The Skit Guys

Tommy Woodard and Eddie James are The Skit Guys. They have been best friends since high school. Think of them as the wise guys in class who had everyone laughing and managed to make a career out of it. They've been teaching God's word using comedy, drama and whatever category talking action figures fit into for over twenty years. www.skitguys.com

Jonathan Kirk has been performing illusions since he was 8 years old. In that time this 22 year old Tennessee native has performed and taught illusions for all ages, both nationally and internationally. He recently graduated North Greenville University with a B.A. in Interdisciplinary Studies, concentrating in Theology and Literature, where he studied the importance of the arts in the context of Christianity. #### Measured by Faithfulness

Back in the summer of 2005 Mark and I were so excited by the calling of God on our life and the vision He had given us for Canaan Valley. A life of surrender to the will of Christ, to be on mission, and the privilege we have to serve Him. Before ministering on the field we were told by the staff of WVCSB, Bill Barker (Appalachian Regional Missionary) and a book on West Virginia culture that our area in Canaan would not be easily plowed. It would require great courage and perseverance. I truly believed the Lord had already prepared us back in Kansas and we were ready! I will have to confess that many times since then Mark and I have questioned God and wondered if we were making any difference in the Kingdom. A time or two the thoughts of bailing out looked good, but the Lord, because of His great compassion, would remind us that we are to plant and water. "He is the Lord of the Harvest"! You see, in our flesh we struggle with what I call the numbers game. In this earthly shell we equate numbers as the measurement we base success on when a life led by His spirit is measured by faithfulness. We are His spokespersons and have been given such a great privilege to show the world who He is and the redemptive work He has done for them at the cross. We share by faith and the Lord brings the Harvest!

Mark and I celebrate this week because the harvest has come to Canaan Valley! A woman named Julie, whom we have ministered to in the last three years, accepted Christ as her personal Lord and Savior last week at our kitchen table. She is the first convert in this resort setting since we came 6 years ago and we are celebrating what the Lord has done! Sunday, November 20th, we met at Big Johns Family Restaurant after church and baptized 4 new believers! I have peace today knowing that even if there is never a church plant (by definition) in this resort setting, by sharing the good news and discipling we have run the race marked for us simply by being faithful to the one who has given us Life, eternal Life!
